AT4 Systems Proposal to Host September 2007 Interim Session

Málaga – Sevilla – Madrid

- AT4 Wireless wishes to invite you to Malaga, Spain for the IEEE 802.16 WG interim September 2007 session
  - Malaga has been enriched by various different civilizations that passed by and left their traces in our unique lands.
  - Malaga, with the name 'Malaka' (fish salting place), was founded by the Phoenicians about 800 BC., and was used as a commercial enclave, following the colonization that had been initiated 1100 BC by the foundation of Gadir (Cádiz).
  - 70 years of after Greek domain, Malaga was dominated by the Carthaginians, but after the Punic Wars that finished in 202 B.C. with the Roman victory, Malaga fell under Roman domain, and was named Flavia Malacita
  - Converted into an important point of passage, Malaga was connected with other Roman centers on the Peninsula and harbors of the Mediterranean Sea.

- Most fly into London, Frankfurt, Paris, Madrid or Barcelona
- Distance: 8 km from airport to downtown, 15 km from airport to AT4 wireless
