Ted Burse Disapprove; The date of PAR approval is after January 1, 2007, therefore the scope and purpose of the Draft must be identical to the PAR's scope and purpose. The second paragraph of the purpose cited in the draft does not appear in the approved PAR.

John Kulick -

David Law [1] Subclause 4.2.3.2 'Review of draft standards' of the IEEE-SA Standards Board Operations Manual states 'Scope and Purpose of Document. For new and revision projects, the scope and purpose of the draft document submitted to RevCom shall match the scope and purpose stated in the approved PAR.'. The purpose in the draft does not match that in the approved PAR as the draft contains an additional paragraph that reads 'In addition, the purpose of this standard is to provide conformant equipment with procedures and services to enable interoperable and efficient management of network resources, mobility, and spectrum, and to standardize management plane behavior in 802.16 fixed and mobile devices.'.

Sam Sciacca Disapprove; -Purpose in Draft differs from PAR.
-Moving citations from references to bibliography would seem to be a substantive change. I agree with the commenter that a recirc is needed.

Editorial (Turner) The purpose in the draft does not match the purpose in the approved PAR.
